Shogo Nonomura of Japan and Angelina Melnikova of Russia (pictured) won the men's and women's all-around titles, respectively, in Birmingham (England), held March 21-22. It was the third of four all-around World Cups. The first two were the American Cup in Chicago and the DTB Cup in Stuttgart, Germany, and the last will be in Tokyo on April 14.

Nikita Nagornyy of Russia placed second and Britain's James Hall finished third in the men's competition.

Frazier
U.S. claimed the silver and another Brit,
Alice Kinsella
won the bronze.
