Russian junior Ksenia Semyonova was the top scorer at the 10th WOGA Classic, held Saturday evening in Frisco, Texas.

Semyonova, 14, scored a 59.720 to win the junior all-around title. She shone on uneven bars with an A score of 7.00 (Jaeger; inside Stalder-full, Deltchev, Pak salto; Tkatchev; piked Arabian double front). Her balance beam routine brought a 15.600, the top score of the competition (front aerial, ff, layout, layout to two feet; double pike).

Mattie Larson (All Olympia) suffered falls on balance beam and floor exercise, but finished second in the junior all-around with clean performances on uneven bars and vault.

Powerful Katelyn Mohr (Byers Gymnastics) won the senior all-around title. 2004 European champion Alina Kozich (Ukraine) finished second all-around after a fall on beam and a low execution score on uneven bars.

Russian Yekaterina Kramarenko was leading the senior all-around competition until the fourth rotation, when she fell three times from the balance beam.

Russia won the team competition. Australia, led by the expressive Lauren Mitchell and senior bars champion

Olivia Vivian, finished second ahead of Ukraine.
